Teacher of the Year

Nomination Form

The Teacher Recognition committee will review these forms in choosing three candidates for each House's Teacher of the Year award. A faculty election will be held to determine the winners.

To nominate a teacher for the Teacher of the Year award, write a statement telling why you think the teacher deserves it, using the questions in the right column as a guide. The questions were derived from a list the faculty has identified as characteristics of an excellent teacher. If you find that you need more space, feel free to attach additional comments to this form.

Please have the nominations turned in by Monday, April 23, 2007.

I nominate _____ for Teacher of the Year because...

How does this James Logan teacher...

- personalize relations with students?
- value diversity?
- vary instruction to meet the learning needs of students?
- believe that all students can learn, and hold high expectations for their performance?
- have high expectations for students' behavior?
- make connections between disciplines?
- connect the curriculum to the world outside the classroom
- encourage and recognize the contributions of parents and the community?
- adapt instruction to meet the evolving demands for skills and information?
- continue to learn and encourage and support others staff members?